It has been reported that the APRA custom of exploding bombs in honor of Victor Raul Haya de la Torre's birthday on 22 February 1952 will be observed this year. Members of the APRA who are employees of the Cerro de Pasco Corporation have stolen approximately one hundred sticks of dynamite and enough fuses and detonators for the preparation of bombs. According to present plans, these bombs will be exploded in Lima on the night of 19 February, in the hope of avoiding police interference.

25X1A Comment: Last year similar plans were carried out in a very limited way only.
